This is the first multi-volume collection of major writings on cultural anthropology, the sub-field of anthropology which is concerned with how people in different places live and understand the world around them. It covers key methodologies (participant observation, ethnography) and topics (kinship, ritual, values) and maps the development of the field from its beginnings in the mid-nineteenth century through to recent and current debates on the 'critique of anthropology' and the rise of new methodologies such as multi-sited research. The four volumes are arranged thematically and each is separately introduced. Drawing upon essays from anthropology and related disciplines, the volumes together chart the origins of the field, explore its core theories and methods, and trace the proliferation of sub-fields that it has generated, including anthropology of art, urban anthropology, medical anthropology and the anthropology of gender and sexuality. With key texts from James George Frazer, Lewis Henry Morgan, Bronislaw Malinowski, Franz Boas, Ruth Benedict, Margaret Mead, Lucy Mair, Claude Levi Strauss, Melford Spiro, Marshall Sahlins, Laura Nader, Maurice Godelier, David Graeber, Suad Joseph and many more, this set is an essential resource for scholars and students of the subject.

November 1st 2018 is one of those days that stays with you for the rest of your life. You see that was the day I found a small lump in my left breast, you never forget that moment as inside I was filled with dread, fear and worry of what the future held. I had seen several family members in the past few months being diagnosed with that dreaded disease, breast cancer. This find was made even more traumatic as the next day I was attending a dinner at St George's Hall, Liverpool, an iconic ceremonial building known throughout the world and the first building visitors see as they exit Lime street station. It's so iconic that it has been used as a backdrop for film locations for numerous worldwide movies in recent years. I was attending this dinner as I had been nominated for two awards. One was for Employee of the year, a massive honour and the other was for Innovator of the year. These are two extremely prestigious awards within my place of work, Aintree University Hospital. Wow I can hear you say, well so did I. I'm not apologising as I was absolutely over the moon for reasons I will go into later in my story.

Ben Brooksby is a fifth-generation farmer from St Helens Plains in western Victoria. When he was younger, he struggled with anxiety and other mental health issues, as do so many others in rural communities. A simple social media post helped him to turn things around. After he shared a photo on Instagram showing himself naked in a truck full of lentils, he received a huge response, with other farmers wanting to share their own photos - and their stories. As the Naked Farmer movement grew, Ben met people from all around the country who wanted to get naked for mental health. As they got their kits off, they also opened up about their struggles. This is a heartwarming, moving and candid collection of stories of the challenges our farmers are facing, and the way these communities are banding together in response. It's race day at Mr. Fred's racetrack. Who will win? This fast-paced story puts young readers in the driver's seat as Mary Ann and her friends zoom around the track. Basic concepts such as opposites and colors are introduced in this exciting fiction book, which accompanies the HABA game Monza. Readers will also learn about teamwork, problem solving, and the importance of being a good sport regardless of whether they win or lose. Age-appropriate text and colorful illustrations make this an enjoyable book for both emerging readers and younger listeners.

How to Survive

Ford’s Focus Mk1 was a game-changing family hatchback, setting new standards for ride, handling and driver enjoyment. The sporty ST170 was noted for being a top-notch all-rounder, while the rapid RS broke the mould for front-wheel-drive hot hatchbacks, offering outstanding ability on road or track. Today, the ST170 and Mk1 RS are highly-regarded driver’s machines, while gradually gaining cult status – and increasing value – among classic collectors. But both machines suffer the potential for rust, neglect, abuse and accident damage – which makes buying one a task that’s fraught with risk. To help the would-be RS or ST driver, this quick-reference guide acts as a handy pocket-sized companion during the purchasing process. It aims to help buyers select the best car, pay the right price and avoid any pitfalls. Written by a motoring journalist, long-term fast Ford enthusiast and Focus ST owner, this one-stop package of great advice includes at-a-glance tips, illustrated in-depth inspection guidance, specifications, real-world cost considerations and even notes on which modifications to avoid.

Morris Minor 1000

Well well, what do we have here? It's a huge, very noisy traffic jam and everyone's in a hurry to get somewhere The racing car, off to the track, goes vroooooom; the beach buggy, on its way to the coast, goes bumble bumble; and Mr Luiggi cries 'Mamma Mia My ice creams are melting ' What ever could be the cause of all this traffic?
