Long Island City, the most rapidly gentrifying neighborhood in New York City and perhaps America. Once the city's industrial core, it has now been dubbed the first 'instahood' for the frenetic pace of its redevelopment. While many of its factories and warehouses have been torn down to make way for glass and steel condominiums much of the neighborhood's past remains, precariously clinging to life. This makes Long Island City one of the most unique neighborhoods in the city with stark architectural contrasts between the Gleaming high rises and pristine parks of hunters point to the desolate landscape of Blissville. This book is an attempt to document that coexistence of old and new.

Torn Trousers: A True Story of Courage and Adventure: How A Couple Sacrificed Everything To Escape to Paradise No Starch Press

What could possibly go wrong in paradise? Tired of mortgage payments, thirty-something Andrew and Gwynn sold nearly everything they owned but their Siamese cat and escaped their humdrum nine-to-five existence for life in paradise—a tiny island in one of the remotest spots on Earth: the Okavango Delta in Botswana. Woefully inexperienced, they took control of a luxury game lodge that catered to the likes of French aristocrats, Hollywood directors, Mafia lawyers, and the captain of the England cricket team. Not forgetting the hippos who liked to crash cocktail hour. Trouble soon followed as the reality of running a hotel on an island accessible only by boat or plane burst upon them. Andrew and Gwynn learned it's one thing for guests to wake up with gentle giraffes outside their windows, but it's quite another to keep them safe from poisonous snakes, temperamental elephants, and a hyena with a taste for plastic. All that was child's play compared to figuring out how to feed their guests when a 'quick run' to the grocery store required a plane, a bush pilot, and moderate risk to life, limb, and property. By turns funny, touching, and suspenseful, Torn Trousers is a real modern fairytale about getting exactly what you wished for...and then having to live with it.
