Just a lemon is quite simple all about this humble zesty, aromatic and nutritional yellow fruit. The book covers a brief history of the lemon, description, production and nutritional benefits together with a list of tips and did you know facts and a host of savory and sweet recipes and mouth watering pictures. I am lucky enough to have written this book more often than not in the sunshine, as I live on the coast in the Provence of Andaluc í a Southern Spain. A little hot spot known as the Costa Tropical of Granada and yes give or take a few days we do generally benefit from sunshine most of the year round. Lemons in this part of the world are a must have and practically every cortijo, plot of land, garden, roof terrace or patio is not complete without at least one lemon tree. I was inspired to write this book by a Spanish friend of mine who continually has an abundance of lemons growing in her garden but wasn't really sure what to do with them all.
