The former Presidential Agent 's Office of Organizational Analysis has been disbanded. Charley Castillo and his colleagues have retired, and the sudden death of the President has brought an adversarial Commander-in-Chief into the Oval Office... But just because Castillo is out of the government doesn ' t mean he ' s out of business. He still has the skills and the manpower to do what others can ' t or won ' t do. And his first job is a real killer. A barrel filled with some nightmarishly lethal biohazard material has been shipped to an Army medical lab—material that Castillo and his men were supposed to have destroyed on a mission. Clearly, the message is that more of the deadly material remains. But who has it? And what do they want? With lives at stake—including his own—Castillo knows that he ' s not going to like the answers one damn bit...

Sexy, wealthy and handsome is what best describes Jarvis Denttin, the owner of the exclusive popular Denttin nightclubs. His posh lifestyle has women flocking to him regularly, and they feed his strong appetite for sex. Having his choice of any woman, has created a selfish, deceiving, controlling man. Women are attracted to his alluring demeanor, until they are invited into his life and introduce to his devious side. Expanding his company, Jarvis Denttin is excited to open a new nightclub in Chicago. He is devastated when his close friend is killed and his businesses become in jeopardy, that he is now reconsidering his move to the Windy City. Just as attractive and charming as Jarvis, his friend and employee Antonio Flink, is being well trained to become a duplicate of him, but Antonio proves that he is more conniving then Jarvis could imagine. Candace Mourton, the personal assistant to Jarvis Denttin is a smart opportunist and knows that he is capable of providing the lifestyle she deserves, and she is willing to do whatever it takes to keep the money flowing. She enjoys her professional and sexual relationship with him, until she breaks her own rule and falls in love. Jarvis takes care of her financially, and she caters to him daily, but realizes that isn't enough to keep him interested in her. With money dominating Jarvis's successful life, he is unaware of the scheme being orchestrated to bring him down and he gets caught up in a web of deception. Knowing all the wrong he has done to people, he's ready for a fresh start, but karma gets to him first. Oblivious of his acquaintance motives, puts him in a deadly situation. Will his life crumble before he finds out that the people around him have been misleading him the entire time?

Combine the power of Apache Spark and Python to build effective big data applications Key Features Perform effective data processing, machine learning, and analytics using PySpark Overcome challenges in developing and deploying Spark solutions using Python Explore recipes for efficiently combining Python and Apache Spark to process data Book Description Apache Spark is an open source framework for efficient cluster computing with a strong interface for data parallelism and fault tolerance. The PySpark Cookbook presents effective and time-saving recipes for leveraging the power of Python and putting it to use in the Spark ecosystem. You'll start by learning the Apache Spark architecture and how to set up a Python environment for Spark. You'll then get familiar with the modules available in PySpark and start using them effortlessly. In addition to this, you'll discover how to abstract data with RDDs and DataFrames, and understand the streaming capabilities of PySpark. You'll then move on to using ML and MLlib in order to solve any problems related to the machine learning capabilities of PySpark and use GraphFrames to solve graph-processing problems. Finally, you will explore how to deploy your applications to the cloud using the spark-submit command. By the end of this book, you will be able to use the Python API for Apache Spark to solve any problems associated with building data-intensive applications. What you will learn Configure a local instance of PySpark in a virtual environment Install and configure Jupyter in local and multi-node environments Create DataFrames from JSON and a dictionary using pyspark.sql Explore regression and clustering models available in the ML module Use DataFrames to transform data used for modeling Connect to PubNub and perform aggregations on streams Who this book is for The PySpark Cookbook is for you if you are a Python developer looking for hands-on recipes for using the Apache Spark 2.x ecosystem in the best possible way. A thorough understanding of Python (and some familiarity with Spark) will help you get the best out of the book.

Planning algorithms are impacting technical disciplines and industries around the world, including robotics, computer-aided design, manufacturing, computer graphics, aerospace applications, drug design, and protein folding. This coherent and comprehensive book unifies material from several sources, including robotics, control theory, artificial intelligence, and algorithms. The treatment is centered on robot motion planning, but integrates material on planning in discrete spaces. A major part of the book is devoted to planning under uncertainty, including decision theory, Markov decision processes, and information spaces, which are the 'configuration spaces' of all sensor-based planning problems. The last part of the book delves into planning under differential constraints that arise when automating the motions of virtually any mechanical system. This text and reference is intended for students, engineers, and researchers in robotics, artificial intelligence, and control theory as well as computer graphics, algorithms, and computational biology.

Why Compromise? Twenty-first-century living causes us all to compromise in some way. A wife may compromise quality time with her husband while he is treating an important client to dinner in order to secure a huge deal. A husband will compromise season tickets of his favorite sports team by surprising his wife with a trip to France to celebrate their many years together. Children may even compromise being popular in order to get accepted into Harvard or Yale. In some way shape or form, we all compromise. However, when it comes to compromising the commandments of God for selfish short-term gratification, Why Compromise? In society today, there are two different structures of life: The Carnal Christian and The Christian Life. Many people today focus, dwell, aspire, love, live, abide, and obey the Carnal life. Focused on the latest fashions, the newest trend, being America's Idol and the next Top Model people lose sight of the importance of life. While there is nothing wrong with fine dining and fancy living, when it comes with a price like your very soul, what was really gained? Men are determined to bring in the six-figure income, drive the newest CLS 550 Mercedes Benz, and sail across the Atlantic Ocean with college buddies and babes in bikinis. Driven by dissatisfaction due to commercial advertisements, women subject themselves to numerous and dangerous plastic surgeries and extreme diets to become a size 1 or less and value their self-worth according to what the scale says. Unknown to parents, children, teens, and young adults are at the mercy of their peers as they do all that they can to meet the standards of acceptance set by those in the limelight. When questioned about knowing or having a relationship with God, these carnal-minded people respond with such brainless answers like "My dad is a pastor" or "My grandmother has a relationship with God." So yes, I know God. "For although they knew God, they neither glorified him as God nor gave thanks to Him, but their thinking became futile and their foolish hearts were darkened" (Romans 1:21). By living in the last hour of the last days, the importance for the carnal-minded, godless sinner to receive salvation and cease from acknowledging God only, and live according to His holy standards is beyond crucial, and it is critical to their eternal destination. On the other hand, the world is filled "to some degree" with those living, having faith, and believing in the Way, the Truth, and the Life: Jesus Christ. Ex drug addicts, ex-murderers, ex-cons, ex gang members, ex-alcoholics, ex sex offenders, and ex-sinners are coming into the surpassing knowledge of Jesus Christ. "As God's chosen people, holy and dearly loved, clothe yourselves with compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness, and patience" (Colossians 3:12). Walking as children of light in total darkness, temptation, doubt, fear, sin, and ungodly desires situations present themselves on a regular basis. As believers, we are to bear the fruit of righteousness and contend with anyone "in love" for the faith we have. However, without proper Holy Ghost filled believers bearing fruit of No Compromise in their lives, how will those lost and destined for great punishment and everlasting separation from God recognize the Christian from the Carnal? Being a Christian today is NOT hard, but it is NOT easy. Persecution awaits us at every turn. And because of the hardships we face, the Word says: "Some will abandon the faith and follow deceiving spirits and things taught by demons" (1 Timothy 4:1). We are all looking for answers: every nation, country, ethnic background, man, woman, boy, and girl. All are in need of answers. The quest for these answers lie in the decisions we make. The foundation of No Compromise is to help, guide, and instruct you, "the reader," to make the right choice and say No Compromise to live a life worthy of the Gospel of Jesus Christ. "God did not call us to be impure, but to live a holy life. Therefore,
