This book is designed to provide a practical, criterion-referenced, performance-based, model for general secondary or middle school methods. The text's unique modular format allows students to work through each module at their own pace, building confidence as each skill is mastered. Using current and practical methods of teaching, this latest edition incorporates constructivist-based theory, social-interactive learning strategies, and inquiry learning, which involve students in problem-solving situations.

Report of the Secretary of State on the Condition of Common Schools

Lindale, Lint, and Leather is Randall McCord's third published work.

Beginning in 2015, he and former player Tommy Moon wrote 739 pages about The Cotton Picking Centre Warriors, which was a hundred-year history of their high school football team located in Cherokee County, Alabama. Six years later, he authored a semibiographical book about a journey from Roy Hill's cotton fields to US Navy duty on the island of Oahu set in Hawaii's last year as a territory and first as the fiftieth state. Both have been well received by casual readers and historians. The eighty-three-year-old has experienced a varied career as a farm boy, athlete, Navy petty officer, college student, and later high school teacher and coach. Yet for the past four decades, he has owned and operated a forest products company with wife, Joyce Anne, in Rome, Georgia, near their home on Rockmart Road in Silver Creek.
