Jean Echenoz's 1914 is a novel about the First World War, and it covers the years 1914 through 1918; as French reviewers have noted, the French title -- 14-- slyly alludes not only to the opening year of the war, but also to the fact that the book is Echenoz's fourteenth work of fiction. This subtle wink is lost to the reader in (English) translation, but not that much else is in Linda Coverdale's fine rendering of Echenoz careful, elegant prose -- helped also by a few (but detailed ...
