'Richard Marsh' (Richard Bernard Heldmann, 1857–1915) was a bestselling, versatile and prolific author of gothic, crime, adventure, romantic and comic fiction. This book, the first on Marsh, establishes his credentials as a significant agent within the fin de siècle gothic revival. Marsh's work spans a range of gothic modes, including the canonical fin de siècle subgenres of urban and imperial gothic and gothic-inflected sensation and supernatural fiction, but also rarer hybrid genres such as the comic gothic and the occult romance. His greatest success came in 1897 when he published his bestselling invasion narrative The Beetle: A Mystery, a novel that articulated many of the key themes of fin de siècle urban gothic and outsold its close rival, Bram Stoker's Dracula, well into the twentieth century. The present work extends studies of Marsh's literary production beyond The Beetle, contending that, in addition to his undoubted interest in non-normative gender and ethnic identities, Marsh was a writer with an acute sense of spatiality, whose fiction can be read productively through the lens of spatial theory.

730 Daily Math Warm-Ups

This versatile, economical book gives you two intriguing math riddles for every day of the year. Each puzzle highlights an interesting person or event associated with that particular day. Students guess the year based on mathematical clues such as, "The square root of my tens digit is equal to my units digit." In solving the puzzles, students work with a wide range of math concepts and functions. They interpret quantitative clues, use context clues to problem solve, and connect abstract number theory to a fun activity.
