"CAR OWNERSHIP for Women" helps you buy right, stay safe, and extend the life of your car. In the first chapter, "Car Buying," assessing needs, wants, and means sets the stage for more effectively negotiating with dealers, at auctions, and on the Internet. Financing tips include selecting the best terms, lenders, and making the right ownership choices. In the second chapter, "Car Safety," etiquette when signalling, parking, and driving are demonstrated in a way that enables smartly managing the hazards associated with today's driving conditions. Handling breakdowns resulting from failure of the car's wheels, engine, and transmission save lives and money. In the third chapter, "Car Maintenance," care of the car's interior, exterior, and its engine are explained. A wise maintenance care program can easily extend the life of the car. Materials, storage space, devices, body, tires, windows, fluids, fuel, and engine performance are highlighted in ways you might have otherwise ignored.

This is a print on demand edition of a hard to find publication. Explores whether sufficient data exists to examine the temporal and spatial relationships that existed in terrorist group planning, and if so, could patterns of preparatory conduct be identified? About one-half of the terrorists resided, planned, and prepared for terrorism relatively close to their eventual target. The terrorist groups existed for 1,205 days from the first planning meeting to the date of the actual/planned terrorist incident. The planning process for specific acts began 2-3 months prior to the terrorist incident. This study examined selected terrorist groups/incidents in the U.S. from 1980-2002. It provides for the potential to identify patterns of conduct that might lead to intervention prior to the commission of the actual terrorist incidents. Illustrations.

An award-winning scientist offers his unorthodox approach to childrearing:

"Parentology is brilliant, jaw-droppingly funny, and full of wisdom...bound to change your thinking about parenting and its conventions"

(Amy Chua, author of Battle Hymn of the Tiger Mother).

If you're like many parents, you might ask family and friends for advice when faced with important choices about how to raise your kids. You might turn to parenting books or simply rely on timeworn religious or cultural traditions. But when Dalton Conley, a dual-doctorate scientist and full-blown nerd, needed childrearing advice, he turned to scientific research to make the big decisions.

In Parentology, Conley hilariously reports the results of those experiments, from bribing his kids to do math (since studies show conditional cash transfers improved educational and health outcomes for kids) to teaching them impulse control by giving them weird names (because evidence shows kids with unique names learn not to react when their peers tease them) to getting a vasectomy (because fewer kids in a family mean smarter kids). Conley encourages parents to draw on the latest data to rear children, if only because that level of engagement with kids will produce solid and happy ones. Ultimately these experiments are very loving, and the outcomes are redemptive—even when Conley's sassy kids show him the limits of his profession. Parentology teaches you everything you need to know about the latest literature on parenting—with lessons that go down easy. You'll be laughing and learning at the same time.

Travelling the back roads across America in 2001/2002 on a seven month, eighteen thousand mile journey brought out survival instincts and a perception of life in Gary that we all possess and rarely experience in this modern world that we live. The result is clearly written in Journey Thru America My Quest for Peace Volume One, in which Gary describes his incredible journey in such a way that the reader experiences the excitement and travelling as if they are experiencing it themselves. Gary speaks his mind of America and American people that is controversial at times and thought provoking.
