"As I was seated in remembrance and contemplation one night, in front of me appeared a great stag, shining and shimmering in whiteness, and there was a concentration of brilliant white light above its head. The stag was some feet away and was moving toward me. As it got closer, I could see that the white light on its head was emanating from a flaming brand, a torch, lit, glowing with brilliant white star-like light. The flaming brand, 'qabas' in Quranic Arabic, was as if a projection from the top of its head. The stag came straight toward me, approached me until it was so near I could have reached out and touched it, and then the flaming brand that was on its head, was suddenly but so naturally, held by it in its mouth. The stag bowed its head and placed this flaming brand, this qabas at my feet, and disappeared. As this happened the following verse flashed through my mind, and I knew I had been given permission to spread the teachings that are coming to me, and I was given the name under which to do so; It is 'Qabas', a flaming brand; a torch for warmth and a light for guidance.

his to said he fire a saw he 10When ayah ,20 surah :Quran family, "tarry here, I have indeed perceived a fire maybe I can bring you from it a flaming brand or I can find guidance at the fire"QABAS - Volume 4, ReturnedThis is volume 4 in the Qabas series.

Containing 47 poems, many didactic, that mark the end of the suluk of the author. It follows Volume 1, 'Early Signs', Volume 2, 'Entering', and Volume 3, 'Exiting'. Like the volumes before, the number of the poems in this volume, 47, bears a mystical connotation, being an indivisible number, and also the number of the surah in the Quran named after the beloved of the One Divine, our master Muhammed (peace and blessing be upon him).
