This Oldsmobile parts interchange manual has been designed to help you in the purchase and identification of original equipment parts. It will save many hours of time locating the parts you need. With this manual you will know exactly what parts from which GM vehicles are identical. There may be no need to pay a high price for a supposedly rare part when it may be identical to many other vehicles parts. Many parts interchange between different years, makes and models. For example a part from a 53 Pontiac may be the same as for a 55 Cadillac or a part from a 65 Chevy Impala may be the same as a part for 64 Buick. This manual may not only save you money, it could be a great reference source for your restoration project. It includes a model identification chart, engine identification information, serial number charts, original factory part numbers, for certain parts it includes casting numbers, and more. The manual is broken down by the major groups listed below and each of these groups is further broken down into specific parts. For example under the body group it lists everything from bumpers to window regulators. Below are the groups and a sample of what is included in each group. Axle group Shafts, housing, gears, etc. Bearing group Pinion, wheel, etc. Body group Fenders, grilles, doors, bumpers, etc. Brake group Drums, master cylinders, shoes, etc. Clutch group Cover, disc, etc. Cooling group Radiator, water pump, etc. Electrical group Alternator, horn, distributor, wiper motors, etc. Engine group Camshaft, crankshafts, heads, manifolds, etc. (covers 6 cylinder up to the 430) Fuel group Carburetors, fuel pumps, tanks, etc. Suspension group Springs, shocks, tie rods, etc. Transmission group Complete transmissions, gears, shaft, etc. Glass

Every step in the business bankruptcy litigation process is covered in Aspen Publishers' Bankruptcy Litigation Manual, from the drafting of the first pleadings through the appellate process. In fact, by making the Bankruptcy Litigation Manual a part of your working library, you not only get detailed coverage of virtually all the topics and issues you must consider in any bankruptcy case, you also get field-tested answers to questions you confront every day, such as: How to stay continuing litigation against a corporate debtor's non-debtor officers? What are the limits on suing a bankruptcy trustee? Is the Deprizio Doctrine still alive? Does an individual debtor have an absolute right to convert a case from Chapter 7 to Chapter 13? What prohibitions exist on cross-collateralization in financing disputes? Are option contracts "executory" for bankruptcy purposes? When, and under what circumstances, may a bankruptcy court enjoin an administrative proceeding against a Chapter 11 debtor? What are the current standards for administrative priority claims? When must a creditor assert its setoff rights? When can a remand order issued by a district court be reviewed by a court of appeals? What are the limits on challenging pre-bankruptcy real property mortgage foreclosures as fraudulent transfers? Can an unsecured lender recover contract-based legal fees incurred in post-bankruptcy litigation on issues of bankruptcy law? Is there a uniform federal limitation on perfecting security interests that primes a longer applicable state law period, thus subjecting lenders to a preference attack? Do prior bankruptcy court orders bar a plaintiff's later state court suit and warrant removal of the action in federal court? Michael L. Cook, a partner at Schulte Roth & Zabel LLP in New York and former long-time Adjunct Professor at New York University School of Law, has gathered together some of the country's top bankruptcy litigators to contribute to Bankruptcy Litigation Manual. We were blessed to grow up in Roman Catholic families, and were married in the Church in 1960. Barb gave birth to six children during the next ten years. During this time, we made eight physical household moves, four of the relocations were made with newborn babies in tow! In 1974, we made the difficult decision to leave the Catholic Church, and have been actively involved in Bible Churches ever since. Who would believe our schedule? We participated in every type of volunteer service available, including: basketball and soccer coach, Girl Scout leader, Sunday school teachers, and always time for family dinners. Barb was a stay-at-home mom, and eventually achieved an Interior Design degree. I worked for one employer for almost 50 years, which included five different companies, and positions from Apprentice to Director. Now comes our together time. In 1985, Barb started to accompany me on business travel trips. We have traveled extensively: Europe, Canada, Alaska, Mexico, Caribbean, China, Russia and South Africa. Along the way, we have owned 36 automobiles, one truck and one motorcycle. Please come along for the ride of our lifetimes; we hope that you will enjoy it half as much as we have!
