Branding guru Aaker shows how to eliminate the

competition and
become the lead
brand in your market This ground-breaking
book defines the concept of brand
relevance using
dozens of case
studies-Prius,
Whole Foods,
Westin, iPad and
more-and explains
how brand
relevance drives

market dynamics,
which generates
opportunities for your brand and
threats for the competition. Aaker
reveals how these companies have
made other
brands in their categories
irrelevant. Key points: When managing a new category of

product, treat it as if it were a brand; By failing to produce what customers want or losing momentum and visibility, your brand becomes irrelevant; and create barriers to competitors by supporting innovation at every level of the organization. Using dozens of case studies, shows how to create or dominate new categories or subcategories, making competitors irrelevant Shows how to manage the new category or subcategory as if it were a brand and how to create barriers to competitors Describes the threat of becoming irrelevant by failing to make what customer are buying or losing energy David Aaker, the author of four brand books, has been called the father of branding This book offers insight for creating and/or owning a new business arena. Instead of being the best, the goal is to be the only brand around-making competitors irrelevant.
