The 3406a was ran for any truck during the late 70s early 80s, not exactly for one truck, and if you talk to a Cat dealer the is is going to be their answer: "it doesn't work because cat made the 3406e head for the 3406e engine and the c15 head for the c15 engine" they don't believe is gray areas or mismatching engines.
