The life of a third grade teacher, a masters student and a mom! Wednesday, October 1, 2014. Math Journals My research was based on the use of Math Journals in a third grade classroom. I have started implementing our math journals into my math class. We divided our journals into three sections: math thinking, math working and math learning.

Like myself, I am sure that you are enjoying the holiday break. During this time I have been busy creating an Interactive Notebook that aligns with the Common Core 3rd Grade Geometry standards. You are probably thinking why should I use an Interactive Notebook? An Interactive Notebook is an excellent way to:

Organize student thinking...
