"The third-grade units were written to support the crucial transition children make from learning to read to reading to learn. The opening unit, Building a Reading Life, launches your students' lives as upper elementary school readers. Children ramp up their reading skills by immersing themselves in within-reach fiction books while working on word solving, vocabulary development, envisionment, and prediction. The second unit, Reading to Learn:

Grasping Main Ideas and Text Structures, addresses essential skills for reading expository nonfiction, such as ascertaining main ideas, recognizing text infrastructure, comparing texts, and thinking critically, as well as the skills for reading narrative nonfiction, such as determining importance by using knowledge of story structure. The third unit, Character Studies, lures children into fiction books, teaching them to closely observe characters, make predictions, and sharpen their skills in interpretation. The final unit, Research Clubs: Elephants, Penguins, and Frogs, Oh My!, shows youngsters how to turn to texts as their teachers. Children work in clubs to gather, synthesise, and organize information about animals, and then use this information to seek solutions to real-world problems"--pearson.com.

Handwriting Practice Paper

Don't be fooled by other blank handwriting papers that offer multiple grade levels in one book. Just like kids in different grades need different sized clothes, each grade level requires handwriting paper with different sized lines, especially for younger children or those that are struggling with handwriting. Our age-appropriate blank handwriting paper for Third Grade students is the traditional 1/2 inch ruled horizontal paper with a dotted midline. This larger, educationally sound, developmental design will help your child learn handwriting without the frustration of having to write too small, too soon. If your child has difficulty fitting letters to the page or writing on the lines, consider using the handwriting practice paper one grade level below instead for a while as it will provide bigger spaces and lines. Little hands need bigger spaces for better practice. Try our time tested blank handwriting paper and experience Low Stress-Teaching Success with workbooks by Peachy Keen Products.
