In a time when little girls are again being encouraged to be princesses it behooves women to beware when deciding who is friend and who is foe. Dance with the Dragon took fifty years to write. I wrote a new story for each of the baby princesses who came into my life and my heart. No doubt the growth of the princess and her relationship with the dragon reflected my changing understanding of the ways in which women survive in the world.

This was never more evident than when the ghost of a recently fallen fellow agent began to appear on top of the cliff from which he died. It marked the beginning of the end to one of the most bizarre series of events in the history of the U.S. Border Patrol. This collection of true stories provides a rare look into law enforcement that includes not only the routine nightly patrols of the USBP but also actual paranormal activity as it happened to the agents in the field. Readers will go on nightly patrols with the agents of the Brown Field Border Patrol Station, and will face their worst fears as they come face to face with smugglers, mountain lions, ghosts, and even a Sasquatch in this isolated no-man's land.
