This SAE Recommended Practice describes laboratory test methods to measure filter performance. Performance includes, but is not limited to, air flow restriction or pressure drop, overall and fractional efficiency, holding capacity for airborne particles, and air filter structural integrity. The purpose of this test code is to establish and specify consistent test procedures, conditions, equipment, and performance reports to enable comparison of filter performance of particulate air filters used in automotive interior ventilation systems.

We 're told that the future will be brighter. But what if human happiness really lies in the past? Hobart, 2022: a city with a declining population, in the grip of a dark recession. A rusty ship sails into the harbour and begins to unload its cargo on the site of the once famous but now abandoned Gallery of Future Art, known to the world as GoFA. One day the city 's residents are awoken by a high-pitched sound no one has heard for two generations: a factory whistle. GoFA 's owner, world-famous billionaire Dundas Faussett, is creating his most ambitious installation yet. He 's going to defeat technology 's dominance over our lives by establishing a new Year Zero: 1948. Those whose jobs have been destroyed by Amazon and Uber and Airbnb are invited to fight back in the only way that can possibly succeed: by living as if the internet had never been invented. The hold of Bezos, Musk, Zuckerberg and their ilk starts to loosen as the revolutionary example of Factory 19 spreads. Can nostalgia really defeat the future? Can the little people win back the world? We are about to find out. ' Like Orwell, of whom he has written so brilliantly, Dennis Glover 's work is charged with courage, intelligence and purpose. He is the complete writer, and one made for our times. ' —Don Watson 'Savagely hilarious and unlike anything else you 'll read this year. It boils with the anger of the present moment. ' —Rohan Wilson Drawing on a wealth of knowledge and experience and a background of more than 1,000 magazine articles on the subject, engine control expert Jeff Hartman explains everything from the basics of engine management to the building of complicated project cars. Hartman has substantially updated the material from his 1993 MBI book Fuel Injection (0-879387-43-2) to address the incredible developments in automotive fuel injection technology from the past decade, including the multitude of import cars that are the subject of so much hot rodding today. Hartman's text is extremely detailed and logically arranged to help readers better understand this complex topic.

Regional Parallelism and Corruption Scandals in Nigeria is a groundbreaking book that offers fresh perspectives on the character and role of the African media in covering corruption scandals. It explores whether reports regarding corruption stem from the efforts of journalists who employ investigative journalism, or if it is a mere coincidence promoted by the activities of anti-corruption agencies. To that end, the book develops a media systems theory for Africa based on the coverage of corruption scandals in the Nigerian press. This new theoretical paradigm, defined as regional parallelism, argues that African countries are nations within nations, and that therefore any comparative study of the media system should recognize this understanding. The book combines both interviews with journalists as well as qualitative content analysis of newspapers to determine the patterns and issues that influence the reporting of corruption. It also looks at corruption within the media itself, taking into account factors such as regionalism and ethnicity within the practice of journalism.

Dennis Grant, the "Street Modified Godfather", built an SCCA ProSolo Championship and FIA Canadian National Championship winning autocross car. This book describes the tricks, secrets, and engineering details he learned during his racing career. Equally applicable to road racers, rally cars, circle track cars, and high performance street cars, this book is full of information on how to make cars handle at the extreme limits of performance. Includes chapters on tuning suspensions, building shocks, and selecting tires - and much, much more! Whether you are just starting out building a high-performance car, or a grizzled veteran of motorsports, this book is full of insightful (and occasionally funny) observations on what it takes to tune the car and driver system in order to win races. Contains theory and practical advice as well. Written very much in the idiom of the legendary Carroll Smith's ...to Win series, this book is an essential addition to the bookshelf of any automotive enthusiast.

This laboratory test method applies to air filters that improve air quality by reducing concentrations of gaseous, odorous, or hazardous components from ambient and/or re-circulated air in vehicle cabins. The test method provides information on pressure drop, as well as gas and/or vapor removal characteristics. The purpose of the test method is to describe and establish test criteria to enable comparisons of filters and filter components that remove or reduce the levels of containment gases or vapors from air streams under specified laboratory conditions.

As I was seated in remembrance and contemplation one night, in front of me appeared a great stag, shining and shimmering in whiteness, and there was a concentration of brilliant white light above its head. The stag was some feet away and was moving toward me. As it got closer, I could see that the white light on its head was emanating from a flaming brand, a torch, lit, glowing with brilliant white star-like light. The flaming brand, 'qabas' in Quranic Arabic, was as if a projection from the top of its head. The stag came straight toward me, approached me until it was so near I could have reached out and touched it, and then the flaming brand that was on its head, was suddenly but so naturally, held by it in its mouth. The stag bowed its head and placed this flaming brand, this qabas at my feet, and disappeared. As this happened the following verse flashed through my mind, and I knew I had been given permission to spread the teachings that are coming to me, and I was given the name under which to do so; It is 'Qabas', a flaming brand; a torch for warmth and a light for guidance.

Five related stories and a Meditation on the Dragon. This book is a fairy tale for adults. The usual characters appear but the princess approaches her challenges a bit differently. In a time when little girls are again being encouraged to be princesses it behooves women to beware when deciding who is friend and who is foe. Dance with the Dragon took fifty years to write. I wrote a new story for each of the baby princesses who came into my life and my heart. No doubt the growth of the princess and her relationship with the dragon reflected my changing understanding of the ways in which women survive in the world.
