Slocum ' s got just enough rope to hang himself...or someone else. With buzzards circling in the sky, young Tom Garvin hopes his search for the lost cattle of the Bar M Ranch has not ended in vain. It turns out the carrion those birds are after isn ' t cows but the body of a man hanging from a dying tree with a very mysterious black rope around his neck. Impressed by the rope, Garvin decides to take it—along with the dead man ' s beautiful horse—back to the ranch where he works with John Slocum. And the two of them are about to learn that this is one rope they don ' t want to be at the end of...

The Emotion Behind Money is laced throughout with engaging and relatable anecdotes from the author's personal experiences, from childhood to present, and from the examples of others.

Nonjudgmental and empathetic, Ms. Murphy Casserly's voice is warm and engaging. Genuinely interested in the reader's financial well-being, she clearly has the gift of natural insight, and can read people and their monetary situations instantly. In the intake or "discovery" process, she explains, "you have to lead people to uncover the emotional numbers first, and then get to the tactical or financial numbers. Once you have clarity about your personal mission, vision, values and goals and what emotions are triggered underneath, you can begin to get into the hard-core financial planning details that involve your core assets and liabilities, and use these as a launching pad to create a vibrant new relationship to money that will take you where you want and need to go for the rest of your life."
