Second Language
Writing Systems
looks at how
people learn and
use a second
language writing
system, arguing
that they are affected by
characteristics of
the first and
second writing
systems, to a
certain extent
independently of
the languages
involved. This book presents for
the first time the
effects of writing
systems on
language reading
and writing and
on language
awareness, and
provides a new
platform for

discussing
bilingualism,
biliteracy and
writing systems.
The approach is
interdisciplinary,
with contributions
not only from
applied linguists
and psychologists
but also corpus
linguists,
educators and phoneticians. A variety of topics
are covered, from
handwriting to
spelling, word
recognition to the
mental lexicon,
and language
textbooks to
metalinguistic
awareness.
Though most of
the studies
concern adult L2
learners and
users, other
populations

covered include
minority children,
immersion
students and
bilingual children.
While the
emphasis is on English as the L2
writing system,
many other writing
systems are analysed as L1 or
L2: Arabic,
Chinese, Dutch,
Gujarati,
Indonesian, Irish,
Italian and
Japanese.
Approaches that
are represented
include contrastive
analysis, transfer,
poststructuralism,
connectionism and
corpus analysis.
The readership is
SLA and
bilingualism
researchers,

teachers around
the world;
language teachers
will also find much
food for thought.
