Children ' s books as citizens of seek to assist children postcolonial nations, to understand how they represent themselves and their the colonial past to world. Unsettling modern readers, what Narratives: they propose about Postcolonial Readings race relations, and of Children ' s how they conceptualize systems Literature of power and demonstrates how government. Clare settler-society texts position child readers Bradford focuses on texts produced since 1980 in Canada, the United States, Australia, and New Zealand and includes picture books, novels, and films by Indigenous and non-Indigenous publishers and producers. From extensive readings, the author focuses on key works to produce a thorough analysis rather than a survey. Unsettling Narratives opens up an area of scholarship and discussion—the use of postcolonial theories—relatively new to the field of children’s literature and demonstrates that many texts recycle the colonial discourses naturalized within mainstream cultures.
