This is the story of a sixty-five year old woman who was living the good life in retirement with her husband of seven years. They spent every day crabbing, fishing, boating, clamming, beach-combing and the like when she found herself in the ranks of widowhood. She declared she got a sign when she asked God, "Now what do I do with the rest of my life?" Many times in recent years she thought about seeing the old cottage of her youth in Wisconsin. On her daily walk one day along the Russian River, she heard a voice from somewhere that said "go." Just the one word was enough to get her thoughts in motion to do just that. She could never read a map, but that never entered her head. She reasoned she knew how to get to Reno, Nevada from where she lived, and from there she could go northeast and find Elkhorn, Wisconsin and the cottage. So, gathering all the amenities she needed for camping (a sleeping bag, tent, a bag of brown rice, a bag of coffee, a one burner stove and her .38), she was determined to go.

Lars Bradby was supposed to be my forever. That was before we found out he would become a father at the tender age of eighteen. For years, he'd watched me. For months, he'd wanted me. For weeks, he'd chased me. Relentless and infuriating, he turned my stubborn heart into something pliable and weak. Sly and honest, he worked his way into my life as though he'd always planned to be the focal point of it. In love and naive, even when our future seemed bleak, I believed in us. Heartbroken and desperate, I tore my bleeding heart from my chest, wanting only the best for him. In doing so, our forever wasn't just interrupted. It was chased away with one irreversible decision after another. And now, we could no longer see it beneath the heaping piles of debris we'd left in our wake.
