Common sense tells you that you would know if you were evil, but what about the freaking anti-christ? Quite ironically, my name is Faith, and up until a few days ago I was just a normal waitress working a dead end job just to get by. My life was going perfectly crappy just like everyone else, and my dumb ass had to go and screw it up looking for love. When a mysterious dating app installs itself onto my phone

I cave and take the bait. Little do I know the four blind dates I'm matched with are actually the four horsemen of the apocalypse, and my life is turned upside down like the crosses they wear around their necks. I barely have enough time to process that angels and demons exist because every angel and their momma is descending from a corrupt heaven to kill me. Backed into a corner I'm left with two choices- try to plead my innocence to God and his army, or become the anti-christ they all think I am and build my own. Are good and evil really as black and white as they're trying to make them out to be?

no-object custom project, we believe vehicles owned - and loved - by gearheads like us are just as meaningful, if not moreso. Our readers are self-made. We buy vehicles for specific reasons and we learn how to maintain, modify, and repair them ourselves. (With a little help from our friends, of course!) Everyone you meet in an issue of Gearbox Magazine is cool. If you spotted them in a parking lot, you could walk right up to them and strike up a conversation. And chances are you might end up lifelong friends. We're not looking to get rich and forget our roots. We're trying to make a few bucks so we can spend more time helping gearheads build high performance machines & lives. This issue isn't perfect, but neither are our daily drivers. We hope you'll grab a copy and tell a couple friends about us. Thanks for checking us out. GBXM-united.
