Not since Clifford Geertz ' s “ Deep Play: Notes on the Balinese Cockfight ” has the publication of an anthropological analysis been as eagerly awaited as this book, Terence S. Turner ' s The Fire of the Jaguar. His reanalysis of the famous myth from the Kayapo people of Brazil was anticipated as an exemplar of a new, dynamic, materialist, action-oriented structuralism, one very different from the kind made famous by Claude L é vi-Strauss. But the study never fully materialized. Now, with this volume, it has arrived, bringing with it powerful new insights that challenge the way we think about structuralism, its legacy, and the reasons we have moved away from it. In these chapters, Turner carries out one of the richest and most sustained analysis of a single myth ever conducted. Turner places the “ Fire of the Jaguar ” myth in the full context of Kayapo society and culture and shows how it became both an origin tale and model for the work of socialization, which is the primary form of productive labor in Kayapo society. A posthumous tribute to Turner ’ s theoretical erudition, ethnographic rigor, and respect for Amazonian indigenous lifeworlds, this book brings this fascinating Kayapo myth alive for new generations of anthropologists. Accompanied with some of Turner ’ s related pieces on Kayapo cosmology, this book is at once a richly literary work and an illuminating meditation on the process of creativity itself.

The Autocar Lloyd's Register

This book tells the story of how John Egan gradually overcame the odds and, piece by piece, rebuilt this great company. winning over the workforce, the overseas dealers, and most importantly, the customers. Working with Margaret Thatcher and her Government, Egan and his team of managers overcame every obstacle. It often looked impossible, but by using innovative techniques, intelligence, eloquence, openness, and much more, they saved the company that had created some of the finest cars of all time. It is an amazing story that will appeal equally to car enthusiasts, those in business, and readers interested in social history.

A history of all four generations of compact Jaguar, and their Daimler equivalents, tracing the gradual development of Sir William Lyons' original idea over a period between 1955 and 1969. From the powerful, luxury MK 1 and 2 cars to the 4.2-litre 420, this book covers design, development and styling; special-bodied variants; racing performance; buying and owning a compact Jaguar saloon model and, finally, specifications and production figures. This history of all four generations of compact Jaguar and their Daimler equivalents manufactured between 1955 to 1969 will be of great interest to all motoring and Jaguar enthusiasts. Topics covered include buying and owning a Jaguar saloon model; design, development and styling; the cars' competition successes and rare special-bodied models. Superbly illustrated with 208 colour photographs. Saving Jaguar Lloyd's Register Luxury has been both celebrated and condemned throughout history right up to the present day. This groundbreaking text examines luxury and its relationship with desire, status, consumption and economic value, exploring why luxury remains prominent even in the context of a global recession. Using approaches from cultural studies, semiotic research and aesthetics, Luxury presents a wide range of case studies including urban space and new technologies, travel, interior design, cars, fashion ads and jewellery to explore what luxury represents, and why, in the contemporary world. The book will be essential reading for students and scholars across a range of fashion studies, cultural studies and sociology, and anyone interested in the power and allure of luxury today.

“ An interesting story about an interesting man, told in a most entertaining fashion. A real page turner ” Dr Bob Allota, coauthor, “ The Last Voyage of the SS Henry Bacon ” In Waves Astern, E. Spurgeon Campbell recalls eight decades of adventures to exotic and sometimes isolated destinations while serving his country. At 20, Campbell was a radio operator in the Merchant Marine during World War II, later surviving enemy attacks and the sinking of the Henry Bacon whose “ cargo ” was a group of Norwegian refugees. Campbell recalls the February night in a lifeboat in the Arctic filled with terrified refugees, his efforts to send SOS signals in gale-force winds, and of their miraculous rescue. Decades later, he and the survivors were reunited when he was honored by the Norwegian government. Campbell ' s odyssey includes " Cold War " episodes in Eniwetok and Thule, Greenland and a 20-year career with Radio Free Europe.

An affordable, lightweight sports car suitable for racing, the MG TC launched the sports car scene in postwar America. A wave of drivers first competed on the track in these and the later TD, TF and MGA models during the 1950s, many of them eventually moving up to Porsches, Alfa Romeos, Jaguars and Ferraris. Eighty such drivers, from the famous (e.g., Phil Hill, John Fitch, David E. Davis, Jr.) to lesser known men and women with equally vivid stories, are profiled in this book, which presents many of their recollections from firsthand interviews alongside a wealth of period photographs.

The book is about my life, my experiences, and the naked truth of human nature. The misunderstanding of racism, the value of education, dignity, and a change that can lead to unification of all people. Many must not be judged or condemned for the actions, mistakes and the misunderstandings of a few. I was victimized but my victimization does not lead to condemnation, but it leads to education, motivation, and courage. Prioritizing ethical standards before money, and properties. One must understand stealing 25 cents is equivalent to stealing 25 million dollars. The value of one human life must be more valuable than million of dollars regardless of the situations. Finally, all police officers must be highly educated all over the United State of America.
