Peanut Butter is a sad little fish.
His best friend, Honey, just moved away. The two friends were perfect together, just like a peanut butter and honey sandwich. Now Honey is gone, and Peanut Butter needs a new friend-but how will he find one? Peanut Butter sets out on a thrilling adventure deep in the ocean to find a new best friend. He starts his journey by seeking out only the most beautiful fish in the sea and rejecting all others. Along the way, he encounters colorful characters like sharks, an angelfish, a moon snail, and many more. Peanut Butter soon realizes that if he wants real friendship, he'll have to look deeper and discover the beauty within other fish. If he can do that, perhaps he'll finally find the perfect friend. Join Peanut Butter on his big adventure, and share in the discovery of a vibrant undersea community. More importantly, swim along with him as he learns about the importance of true friendship.

“One of the most acute books about management and how companies work in practice that I have read in a long time. If anyone wants to know exactly how the U.S. auto industry got into trouble, here is your guide.” —John Gapper, FINANCIAL TIMES When Bob Lutz got into the auto business in the early 1960s, CEOs knew that if you captured the public's imagination with innovative car design and top-quality craftsmanship, the money would follow. The “car guys” held sway, and GM dominated with bold, creative leadership and iconic brands like Cadillac, Buick, Pontiac, Oldsmobile, GMC, and Chevrolet. But then GM's leadership began to put its faith in numbers and spreadsheets. Determined to eliminate the “waste” and “personality worship” of the bygone creative leaders, management got too smart for its own good. With the bean counters firmly in charge, carmakers, and Fiery aristocrat, Eden Rose, uprooted from her native Scotland, has tended a foundering marriage and failing ranch at the corner of Crazy Woman Creek and the Powder River for a decade. Best friend, backwoods spitfire Maddie True, has her own woes a few miles away: widowed with a passel of young children, and caretaker to her addled father. Abandoned by her husband during the height of Wyoming Territory ' s worst drought in history, Eden depends on her inept brother, Aiden, to see her through the coming winter. But when he disappears into the wild Bighorn mountains, she shuns Maddie ' s fearful cautions, teaming with enigmatic Lakota holy man, Intah, to find her brother before the wicked snow holds them all hostage. “ Light of the Northern Dancers is a powerful novel of a woman ' s journey,

This first book of its kind tells the behind-the-scenes story of the incredibly illegal Cannonball rally. This best seller is now available in paperback! In the early 1970s, Brock Yates, senior editor of Car and Driver Magazine, created the now infamous Cannonball Sea-to-Shining-Sea Memorial Trophy Dash; a flat out, no-holds-barred race from New York City to Redondo Beach, California. Setting out to prove that well trained drivers could safely navigate the American highways at speeds in excess of the posted limits, Mr. Yates created a spectacle reminiscent of the glory days of the barnstorming pilots. Filled with fascinating unpublished stories, nostalgic and modern-day photographs, inside information and hilarious stories from this outrageous and incredibly immoral rally. Brock is one of the best-known, most respected automotive journalists in the world today.

Harper employs narrative in a poetic prose that captures the realness of the American experience and explores the bewilderment of the human condition. The work is unvarnished and brutally unromantic but at the same time the writing hints at a romantic sense of hope while each poem lives out the gritty reality of Harper's intense perception of life, often driven by a distinctive dark humor style. Harper's work contemplates unemployment, loneliness, love, war, abandonment, and transformation. The images are crisp and Harper has composed a world for readers to bring to life with their imagination. Grays Sports Almanac
