Willie and Babette have had their world turned upside down. While Babette adjusts easily to the change in circumstances, it takes Willie a great deal more time. How would you feel if you were suddenly thrust into a world that your own mother had kept you shunned from? Follow along on the first stage of young Willie's journey, as she forces herself to adjust to this strange new world. A startling epiphany shows Willie that she isn't the only one who suffers from 'Less Than Humble Beginnings.' "Try to remember that everyone here has their demons, but we all put those demons to good use." -Jack (Willie's oldest cousin)
