Contrastive Analysis consists of two words, Contrastive and Analysis. The meaning of word Contrastive [k_n tras tiv] is „ of or pertaining to the study of the similarities and differences between languages or dialects without reference to their origins. ” Betty S. Azar (1984: ix), said that English grammar presents fundamental

Researchers from the 1940s to the 1960s conducted contrastive analyses, systematically comparing two... languages. They were motivated by the prospect of being able to identify points of similarity and difference between L1 and L2. In this connection, the researchers made some assumptions. In accordance with their assumptions, the researchers came into a decision that the main difficulties in learning a new language/ target language (TL) are caused by the interference of the native language (NL).
