Laurie R. King
(ebook)
A Darker Place is a book of journeys. It is the journey of Anne Waverly as an undercover agent entering a religious community. Rarely have I read an author with the literary courage and skill of Laurie King. It's easy to be reactionary when dealing with a controversial topic.

Anne Waverley is a person for whom the two aspects of religion—the academic and the personal—converge. Her fascination with that juncture at which religious extremism either goes off the rails or turns towards religious conservatism has brought her to the attention of those whose jobs are to maintain the peace.
