A Girl Like You Gemma Burgess I enjoyed Gemma Burgess' first book, The Dating Detox, and I liked the premise of this, her second. It's not available in the U.S right now, but I was able to buy it online via Awesome Books.

Gemma Burgess - Wikipedia

A Girl Like You is classic, unapologetic chick-lit--and I love it. Newly single Abigail is entering the dating world for the first time. Now, having broken up with her boyfriend of far too many years, Abigail is determined to find the right guy. Robert, her new flat-mate and a classic player, is the perfect candidate to coach her on the Art of Dating.

Gemma started writing anti-romantic comedies for girls who like chicklit that comforts and charms without the silly fluffy bits. She lives in Notting Hill in London, but grew up all over the place – mostly Hong Kong. She loves talking and writing, not necessarily in that order. She also loves burgers, vodka,...

A Girl Like You by Gemma Burgess - Goodreads

Gemma Burgess was one of the first New Adult authors picked up by St. Martin's Press, the publisher who first coined the term "New Adult" in 2009. Her critically acclaimed Brooklyn Girls series centers on five twenty-something girls and the humor, heartbreak, and drama that bring them together.

Gemma Burgess wrote her first book, The Dating Detox, when she and her sister discussed the difficulty of finding a comfort read with cojones. Her second book, A Girl Like You, is inspired by her experiences of learning to navigate the bastard-infested waters of the London bar scene after a long time in a relationship.
