A Happy Death

was Camus' first novel and was clearly the
precursor to his
most famous work,
The Stranger,
published in 1942.
The main character in A Happy Death is named "Patrice Mersault", similar to The Stranger's
"Meursault"; both
are French
Algerian clerks
who kill another
man.
