A Life of Picasso (Vol 3) - Goodreads

The first volume of John Richardson's monumental Life of Picasso (so far, three volumes have been published), this book is a thoroughly documented and elegantly written account of Picasso's early years in Malaga, Barcelona and Paris (up to 1907 and the inception of his masterpiece "Les Femmes d'Alger (O. J. R. Version O)").

This volume is one of three which describe in great detail the life of one of the greatest artists of all time. The author weaves together a fascinating life with Picasso's varied artistic works and the events and people of his time. If you enjoy volume I, you should also read the subsequent 2 volumes. The only downside is the large amount of detail.
