Schools Teach Civics. Do They Model It? - Education Week

Civility is not a baseline, it is a benchmark. Getting students to see civility as a goal to strive for has the potential to alter an entire generation at best, and positively change the landscape of an educator's classroom at worst. Midway through the year, we had a breakthrough during our discussion of the film The Birth of a Nation. Strategies and Resources for Teaching Civics Skills In the midst of debates over what students should learn in civics and how to deliver those lessons, civics education advocates risk missing the larger context: Compulsory K-12 schooling itself...
