In this flawless novella, Mona Simpson turns her powers of observation toward characters who, unlike Ann and Adele August in her bestselling Anywhere but Here, choose to stay rather than go. As a high school student in Green Bay, Bea Maxwell raised money for good causes; later, she became a successful real estate agent and an accomplished knitter.

I enjoy Mona Simpson's books for the same reason I am lukewarm about this one. Character development is always well done and the stories are in depth. In The Lost Father, a sequel to Anywhere But Here, I think she goes too far with Mayan's thought process while searching for her father.
