Adios, Nirvana by Conrad Wesselhoeft is sometimes raw and manic, which is the way Jonathon feels much of the time. His parents are divorced, his dad was not involved in raising him, and his mom isn't exactly the maternal type. He goes on manic benders, popping No Doz and drinking Red Bull to help him stay up for days at a time.

Conrad Wesselhoeft '71 walks West Seattle's Alki Beach. His book "Adios, Nirvana" is largely set in West Seattle. An early interview he wangled with Scott O'Dell, revered author of "Island of the Blue Dolphins," changed his life. Photo by Tom Reese.

Conrad Wesselhoeft's bildungsroman Adios, Nirvana is heavy with death, sexually frustrated high school dudehood and the hanging rainclouds of west Seattle grunge (Eddie Vedder makes a cameo appearance). The heart of the story, however, is the connection between Jonathan and music.
