The business ethical culture in South Africa was and is still being shaped by a number of social and political influences that include its colonial history, the legacy of Apartheid, and the election of the first democratic government in 1994, after which
President Nelson
Mandela ' s government started the process of redressing the racial imbalances and inequalities that resulted from Apartheid.
