Original. McCall's Penguin From New York Times bestseller, Suzanne Enoch, Brain meets Beauty in this sparkling romantic comedy with a dash of chaos, featuring the worst behaved poodles in Regency London; Bringing Up Baby meet Pride and Prejudice! Michael Bromley, Duke of Woriton, has a passion, but it's not for chasing ladies or gambling till dawn. No, his far more dangerous pursuit is the science of chemistry. He may be a tad eccentric, but he can navigate a society ballroom, and manage a polite conversation—if he must. He's certainly capable of taking care of his aunt's perfectly behaved poodle, Lancelot, while she's on holiday. Elizabeth "Bitsy" Dockering, third daughter of a viscount, is the Diamond of the London . She is adored by all—including her precious black poodle, Galahad. To everyone else, however, Galahad is a terror, especially to Bitsy's most insistent beau. A particular victim of Galahad's bad manners, he's hired a minion to steal the fluffy Hell Hound, clearing the way for an uninterrupted courtship. But none of them can plan for a chaotic encounter in the park, resulting in lost notes, a soaking in the Serpentine, and the inept dognapper's confusion between Lancelot and Galahad! Determined to find the poodle, Michael doesn't need a frivolous heiress interfering with his logical plans; but to his surprise, Bitsy is resourceful and clever. What he forgets is that chemistry is all about attraction; and this partnership of opposites is one romantically combustible formula. Still, what's a scientist to do but continue to pursue an outcome, however explosive it may be?

Stolen Kisses Harper Collins

An original short story from New York Times and USA Today bestselling author of historical romance, Suzanne Enoch... Geoffrey Kerick, the Earl of Vashton, has had marriage-minded ladies flung at him for the past two years—since he inherited his brother's title and wealth—which is much less amusing than when they were simply flinging themselves into his bed for fun. However, this particular invitation for a country house party in Devonshire he accepts with alacrity; because this time someone has caught his eye. Theodora Meacham is resigned to being second; a second daughter, second in beauty, and a distant second in charm. Knowing that the irritating Lord Vashton is coming to Beldath Hall to woo her sister, Theo is, for once, quite happy to remain detached from the silliness. But Lord Vashton isn't precisely the boor she expects. Even more surprising, he seems determined to ignore her sister...in favor of her! Can two people who are perfectly ill-suited find that two wrongs do make a right?
