resources for architects - AIA

Architects are typically the responsible design professionals, with a corresponding duty to protect the health, safety, and welfare of both building occupants and the public. The AIA represents the profession on these important issues by supporting member architects ' participation in the code development and adoption processes. Aia Guidelines For Design And Construction Of Hospitals ... The American Institute of Architects' (AIA) Academy of Architecture for Health has issued the 2001 edition of The Guidelines for Design and Construction of Hospital and Healthcare Facilities. This publication will have a significant impact on healthcare building design and construction and, in turn, on infection control policies and practices in hospitals and healthcare facilities throughout the nation. Environmental Guidelines | Guidelines Library | Infection ... The Facility Guidelines Institute is the authoritative source for guidance on health and residential care facility planning, design, and construction in the United States. Our consensus-based, research-informed guidelines are used by regulators, designers, builders, and facility owners and abroad to protect public health, safety, and welfare. 2014 Edition - FGI GUIDELINES FOR DESIGN AND CONSTRUCTION OF The American Institute of Architects Academy of Architecture for Health The Facility Guidelines Institute With assistance from the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services 2001 EDITION HOSPITAL AND HEALTH CARE FACILITIES The American Institute of Architects

Guides for Equitable Practice - AIA Professional Aia Guidelines For Design And Design is not just about aesthetic components, but how buildings perform for people. The Framework for Design Excellence is made up of 10 measures, formerly known as the COTE Top Ten. Facility Guidelines Institute It is critical that project teams establish General Objectives for Design Development. The starting point should be the contract; refer to the specific project agreement as well as AIA B100 series documents. The General Objectives are intended to be clear, concise and shared with the entire project team including the client.
