Exam details. California requires each CPA candidate to answer 50 multiple-choice questions with no time limit for the ethics examination. To pass the exam, the candidate must answer at least 90 percent of the questions correctly. Furthermore, you have six attempts to pass the exam.

How to get answers to your ethics questions

So how do CPAs get answers to these types of questions? The AICPA offers a number of resources, starting with the ethics hotline at 888-777-7077.

(Questions also can be emailed to the hotline at ethics@aicpa.org). The Institute receives about 3,000 inquiries a year. As the aforementioned scenarios illustrate, the most common questions revolve around independence, confidential client information, record retention, and conflicts of interest.

The CPA may not join the AI CPA or his or her state CPA society and therefore would not be subject to their codes of ethics. The CPA, however, cannot avoid being subject to his or her state board of accountancy's code of ethics
