Airel, the main character and the so called heroine, was the second worse character of the book. Michael takes first place. Where Airel's character was written as a vapid and angst ridden teenage girl who complained far too more than doing anything worthy enough to cast her in the light of heroism, Michael had no actual personality.

I am a finisher....so despite how painful it was to push through all 6 books of this saga in a week, I have principles. So I took one for the team. I guess I kept hoping the big, scattered mess of dark visions and poorly written, albeit wordy dreams would piece together in the end and give me a sense of closure.
