American Jews uniquely ignorant? Hebrew \u0026amp; the Humanities Symposium 2016

This historical novel by Dara Horn is based on events of the Civil War, and the roles played by Jews during this intense period. The title drew me with the traditional words "All other nights", commemorative of the Jewish holiday of Passover, when the four questions of the seder ask "Why, on all other nights. . ."

Dara Horn Official Website - Eternal Life

Dara Horn's third novel All Other

Nights shimmers with emotion and historical detail. Set amidst the tumult of the Civil War, Jacob Rappaport is on a quest to find himself. When he flees his parents' wealthy New York life, he knows little of himself or the world.
