You're six years old. Mum's in hospital. Dad says she's "done something stupid." She finds it hard to be happy. So you start to make a list of everything that's brilliant about the world. Everything that's worth living for. 1. Ice cream. 2. Kung Fu movies. 3. Burning things. 4. Laughing so hard you shoot milk out your nose. 5. Construction cranes. 6. Me. You leave it on her pillow. You know she's read it because she's corrected your spelling. Soon, the list will take on a life of its own. A play about depression and the lengths we will go to for those we love.

What do you do when you're in way over your head? That's the position I found myself in after agreeing to attend a party as my twin sister. She's a bestselling author. Emily can't do public appearances to save her life due to panic attacks. I was supposed to only do ONE appearance as her to help save the failing publishing house she works for. I kind of hooked up with a gorgeous author while I was there. His name is Max. I know! Bad idea since I'm not Emily! But I couldn't deny the sizzling connection between us. Fans loved our chemistry and have been clamoring for more of us. Book sales are soaring and now the publisher has the perfect publicity stunt to help save the company. They want us to pretend like we're a hot couple. I'm digging myself deeper and deeper into this hole. I need to come clean and tell everyone I'm not Emily. But when I look into Max's eyes...I just can't bring myself to do it.
