I've read almost every Susan Mallery book published, and enjoyed most of them, she is one of my favorite authors. 'Already Home' introduces a new location and a new cast of people. Once again, Susan presents an interesting, comfortable setting populated by a caring family, acquaintances who rapidly become friends, new men who are to-good-to-be true and a scenario I could relate to.

A departure from Susan Mallery's usual romances, Already Home will still please fans who like Susan's complex characters. Main character Jenna is at a crossroads in her life. Rather than let life beat her down, she pushes through, examining her own flaws and facing them with courage and strength.

"Already Home is a perfect example of why Susan Mallery is one of the most popular writers of contemporary women ' s fiction. Mallery excels at creating strong, relatable female characters – her heroines juggle commitments to family,
relationships, career and life, and do it with humor and grace."
