business jets, twin tail boom such as the P-38 and P-61, twin airframe such as the F-82, experimental aircraft, forward swept and variable sweep wings, and many more. The possibilities are endless. Create designs that are easy and forgiving, challenging, or even ones that require a seasoned test pilot or a catapult. The limit is the size of the room or field. Some are capable of reaching over 150 ft when thrown by hand or over 1000 ft if boosted aloft by a model rocket. These paper airplanes are constructed using standard 8.5 x 11 20-24lb printer paper. Use colored pencils, 24lb colored paper, or even stickers to enhance your design. Included designs are approximately 11-12" long with wingspans 6-12". These designs may be successfully scaled up using legal size paper or poster board, and have been tested up to a 46" wingspan. These planes are even capable of being catapulted or rocket launched (Catapult and rocket launch directions are not included). Filmmaker, painter, anthropologist, musicologist and occultist--Harry Smith (1923-1991) was an incomparable polymath and seminal figure in the realms of beat culture and avant-garde art. Smith's kaleidoscopic experimental films have influenced generations of artists and cinephiles, while his landmark three-volume compilation, the Anthology of American Folk Music (1952), laid the foundation for the folk music revival of the 1950s and 1960s. In addition to his ecstatic artwork, Smith is renowned for his vast collections of curious objects. The Collections of Harry Smith, Catalogue Raisonné series spotlights and indexes his eclectic research obsessions. Volume one features richly detailed photographic documentation of 251 paper airplanes gathered by Smith from the streets of New York City over an approximately 20-year period. Whimsical and weird, the paper airplanes rank among Smith's most mysterious collecting pursuits. This extensive compendium presents the fruits of his extraordinary aeronautic pursuit and highlights the tangled history and myths
