American history did not begin with Christopher Columbus in 1492 or with John Smith in 1607. Long before Europeans reached what they called the New World, Native Americans settled the whole of the Western Hemisphere and created hundreds of civilizations, some as large and complex as fifteenth-century European states.

Sitting in the hot sun at the back of this long parade with a cluster of African American soldiers and dignitaries, Washington felt the courage drain from his body. Thousands of blacks lining the road cheered when they saw him. But while their hands reached out to encourage him, they seemed to burden him with a heavy responsibility.
