Alexandria Ocasio-Cortez may seem like she came from nowhere, but the movement that propelled her to office - and to global political stardom - has been building for 30 years. We've Got People is the story of that movement, which first exploded into public view with the largely forgotten presidential run of the Rev. Jesse Jackson, a campaign that came dangerously close to winning. With the party and the nation at a crossroads, this timely and original book offers new insight into how we've gotten where we are - and where we're headed.

This Manual is designed to outline and summarize sentencing and juveniledisposition law in New Jersey. It provides brief topical discussions of court rules, case law, and statutory provisions primarily in Title 2C (Criminal Code) and Title 2A (Code of Juvenile Justice). Since it is intended as a complement to the Criminal Code and the Code of Juvenile Justice, statutory sections have not been reproduced; they have been paraphrased and quoted where pertinent. Chapters I to XX of this Manual address sentencing laws applicable to adults and juveniles tried as adults in the Superior Court, Law Division. Chapter XXI addresses dispositions imposed on juveniles adjudicated delinquent by the Superior Court, Chancery Division, Family Part. The research into statutory changes, court rule changes, and published court decisions is current through May 30, 2019. Legal discussion of relevant statutes is addressed to the current versions of these provisions, unless specifically noted otherwise
