The original date for the analog-to-digital transition had to be moved because the FCC needed to raise awareness of the change among the population. The idea was to make sure few people are left behind, but their efforts caused some confusion. To receive digital television signals, some people need a converter box.

It's a brand of digital to analogue converter (best buy sells) that you have to have now if you have an older (years or so) TV.. I've been running in circles to find the code to enter into my TV/Directv remote so I could operate everything with one remote control.. I found a code that would work even though the Apex tech said it did not exist..
