Rachel Simms, a business manager in a prominent law firm and a preacher's daughter, is in love and soon to be married to the man of her dreams. As the daughter of a preacher, many expect her to act out or constantly get into trouble to dispel the good girl expectations, but Rachel is the complete opposite. She is a good girl that is in love with her future husband, Corey. Wedding plans start off great, but become way too much for Rachel and Corey to handle. Fighting over flowers, cakes and party favors pushes Corey to become distant, leaving Rachel feeling a way that she had never felt before...alone. In distress, Rachel meets someone that lights a fire in her the way no other man has, including her fiancé. The bad girl that was buried deep down inside is brought out in Rachel, and it opens up a world of forbidden sexual encounters that challenge her character and everything she stands for. Now there's a race against time for Rachel to rekindle the undeniable love she once felt for Corey, or call the wedding off. As her special day quickly approaches and reality sets in, will she be able to resume her role as the predictable "good girl", or has that side of her diminished along with her love for Corey? Something has to change before she says I do.
