This collection of monographs provides useful information for educational administrators in the recruitment and training of science and technology teacher educators in the light of the recent orientation of science education at the basic level. Furthermore, this volume is a valuable resource for science and technology teacher educators. It aims to improve their own pedagogical skills and also provides strategies which could be used by them with their trainees to make them better science and technology teachers. Effective delivery of science and technology education requires co-ordination at different levels. These monographs provide guidelines and practical suggestions on achieving such co-ordination at the teacher training institution as well as at the school level. These monographs were produced by experienced science educators of Asia under the Training of Trainers Programme in Science, Technology and Mathematics Education (STME) of the Commonwealth Secretariat.

The book that inspired the major new motion picture Mandela: Long Walk to Freedom. Nelson Mandela is one of the great moral and political leaders of our time: an international hero whose lifelong dedication to the fight against racial oppression in South Africa won him the Nobel Peace Prize and the presidency of his country. Since his triumphant release in 1990 from more than a quarter-century of imprisonment, Mandela has been at the center of the most compelling and inspiring political drama in the world. As president of the African National Congress and head of South Africa's anti-apartheid movement, he was instrumental in moving the nation toward multiracial government and majority rule. He is revered everywhere as a vital force in the fight for human rights and racial equality. LONG WALK TO FREEDOM is his moving and exhilarating autobiography, destined to take its place among the finest memoirs of history's greatest figures. Here for the first time, Nelson Rolihlahla Mandela tells the extraordinary story of his life--an epic of struggle, setback, renewed hope, and ultimate triumph.
