My name is Captain Pat BOONE, author of the B737 MRG pilot guide. I would like to confirm that the MRG should NOT be used during your ab initio training as a first officer on the Boeing 737. As pointed out above, you should focus on Boeing manuals (especially the FCTM) and your company Operational Manuals / Standard Operating Procedures.

The B737 MRG is more of a complementary reference handbook, where you can find additional technical background information on systems, and operational guidelines when those systems fail. I personally recommend to take a look at the B737 MRG after 1 year experience on type, it will give you a much deeper and interesting insight.
