"You won't let anybody else have you, Joseph. I won't let anybody else have you. I want you all to myself." - Gage Mason We've all had our experience with him. The Bad Boy. The one we've been warned about. The one with rips in his jeans and a lazy, devil may care smile on his mouth. The one who makes you do bad things that feel so good. For me it was Gage Mason. We met when he worked on my Ducati. I knew immediately he was trouble, but something about that Bad Boy drew me in. Maybe it's his dark eyes that study me like he wants to know everything about me. Maybe it's the way he makes me feel; the rough touch of his hands, his possessive grip on my hair when we kiss, the way he feels deep inside me. Or maybe it's the way he needs me, even though he won't admit it. For once in my life I'm taking a risk. Despite everything that tells me I shouldn't, I'm taking a chance to be with Gage. I don't know if it will end well, but I do know I can't resist that Bad Boy. Joseph Naderi

Mister Baby Daddy Debby Ng

A classic memoir that's gripping, funny, and ultimately unforgettable from the bestselling former National Ambassador of Books for Young People. A strong choice for summer reading—an engaging and powerful autobiographical exploration of growing up a so-called "bad boy" in Harlem in the 1940s. As a boy, Myers was quick-tempered and physically strong, always ready for a fight. He also read voraciously—he would check out books from the library and carry them home, hidden in brown paper bags in order to avoid other boys' teasing. He aspired to be a writer (and he eventually succeeded). But as his hope for a successful future diminished, the values he had been taught at home, in school, and in his community seemed worthless, and he turned to the streets and to his books for comfort. Don't miss this memoir by New York Times bestselling author Walter Dean Myers, one of the most important voices of our time.
