The first 40 days after the birth of a child offer an essential and fleeting period of rest and recovery for the new mother. Based on author Heng Ou ' s own postpartum experience with zuo yuezi, a set period of “ confinement, ” in which a woman remains at home focusing on healing and bonding with her baby, The First Forty Days revives the lost art of caring for the mother after birth. As modern mothers are pushed to prematurely “ bounce back ” after delivering their babies, and are often left alone to face the physical and emotional challenges of this new stage of their lives, the first forty days provide a lifeline—a source of connection, nourishment, and guidance. The book includes 60 simple recipes for healing soups; replenishing meals and snacks; and calming and lactation-boosting teas, all formulated to support the unique needs of the new mother. In addition to the recipes, this warm and encouraging guide offers advice on arranging a system of help during the postpartum period, navigating relationship challenges, and honoring the significance of pregnancy and birth. The First Forty Days, fully illustrated to feel both inspiring and soothing, is a practical guide and inspirational read for all new mothers and mothers-to-be—the perfect ally during the first weeks with a new baby.

Captain D. Michael Abrashoff, legendary commander of the USS Benfold, continues in the same vein of his bestselling book IT'S YOUR SHIP with the knowledge he's gained from his speaking to and advising some of the top business minds in the world. The story of Captain Abrashoff and his command of USS Benfold has become legendary inside and outside the Navy. By governing his ship with his unique management techniques, Abrashoff turned the Benfold into a model of naval efficiency, with amazing cost savings, the highest gunnery score in the Pacific Fleet, and a highly motivated and top performing crew. In IT'S YOUR SHIP, he first demonstrated how to bring his successful management techniques from the ship to the boardroom. Now, in his newest book IT'S OUR SHIP, in the same rugged, can-do voice, Abrashoff will focus on the leadership, motivational, and management insights and tips that he has learned from his last six years of addressing business and corporate audiences.

Abrashoff's timely advice will be eminently prescriptive, and will feature anecdotes and insights from leaders of businesses large and small and from public and non-profit sectors.

Jack, Keiko, and Arty are back in the exciting second installment of the Rafters series. At the conclusion of the first book, the gang was unable to find Jack's older brother, Ben, who'd fallen overboard while riding the magic raft down the Dunmoore River. Book two begins with Jack and Keiko returning to the fair grounds to look for the old junk dealer who'd sold them the raft. Although the man is nowhere to be found, the kids find an old map they believe holds the secret to Ben's whereabouts. Despite their last frightening trip down river, Jack, Keiko, and Arty return for more thrills on their magical raft, only to discover that the map they've placed their faith in transports them to a place from which they may never return! Will Jack find Ben? Will the kids discover the identity of the old man who sold them the raft? These questions and others are finally revealed in this gripping new installment of Rafters! Vogue on Location Random House

Every recipe works for each of the popular models of the device and is adaptable for the stovetop plus a food processor, as well! Blogger and new mom Philia Kelnhofer is an expert at cooking up simple and nutritious meals for on-the-go families. But when it came time for her to introduce first foods to her baby, she was surprised by the challenges presented by seemingly simple purees. After making a mass batch of sweet potatoes that mostly went to waste, she tried out the baby food maker device, which steams and blends in one canister to make small, baby-sized quantities of food. She discovered she could create yummy, nourishing purees in just ten minutes—from Apple Cinnamon to Lemony Zucchini, and everything in between! The Baby Food Maker Cookbook is the complete resource for parents who want to know what to feed the newest eaters in their families. Illustrated with beautiful photography, the 125 recipes are organized by the timeframe for introducing foods over the first twelve months. Plus, the book includes: * A guide to using the baby food maker * Nutrition information for first foods * A handy calendar for tracking food introduction * Adult-friendly dishes so you can use the device beyond baby From single-ingredient purees to delicious treats like Apple Pear Cinnamon Sauce Yogurt Parfaits, Chickpea-Sweet Potato Spread, and Berry, Avocado, and Coconut Milk Smoothie, these recipes show how to make the most of your baby food maker—and are just what you need to support your baby’s development.

Food for Babies and Toddlers

Abrams

1816. Sarah is orphaned when her parents and younger brother suddenly all die of fever. She copes the only way she knows how--by cutting herself. When her remaining family members refuse the burden of taking in twelve-year-old Sarah, she is sent to live in a boarding school to train to become a governess. Sarah's self-harm behaviors grow out of loneliness and confusion while at the boarding school, often scaring the other girls. But Sarah has a curious and creative heart that only her two best friends can understand. As a governess for Bromley Hall, Sarah is ostracized and heartbroken and flees to London to pursue her passion for art. Working out of a single-room flat in the damp, dark streets of the city, Sarah's art career flourishes, but can she recover from the pain in her mind and in her heart? Stylistically akin to literary greats like Jane Austen and Emily Bronte (this book is like Wuthering Heights meets self-harm), Sarah Crow references the little known history of needle girls in 19th century England. This novel uncovers mental health, grief, and finding your way during traumatic times.
