Behind Closed Doors I hear quite a bit about this book, so thought I'd give the free 5-Chapter sampler a go and have to say I never continued on. I found it rather boring with all the detail about how they were so perfect, their lives being intertwine so much that she couldn't go anywhere or do anything with anyone else. Behind Closed Doors: A gripping debut thriller you won't ...

Behind Closed Doors is her first book, so I decided to read it next. As her debut book, it deserves some leeway, as I believe the author was still finding her style. It is a weightier read than the previous one I'd read, but still held my interest, in spite of the frustration I felt with the weakness of Olivia and the repetitive cold cruelty of Michael.
